A. Leigh Phillips Scholarship Fund Selection Committee

RE: A. LEIGH PHILLIPS SCHOLARSHIP FUND APPLICANTS

The Selection Committee for the A. Leigh Phillips Scholarship Fund is soliciting applications for this year's award.

The Scholarship Fund is maintained through the cooperative efforts of the Maine Administrators of Services for Children with Disabilities (MADSEC), the Department of Education (DOE), and the Maine Council of School Board Attorneys (MCSBA), as a tribute to Ms. Phillips and her many contributions to children with disabilities throughout Maine.

Criteria for student selection are enclosed. Please disseminate this information to students who may be interested in applying (Maine high school seniors with a current identified disability(ies) under the Individuals With Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and Maine Unified Special Education Regulations, Chapter 101), who plan to go on to post-secondary education. This does not include students who are identified only under Section 504.

Application materials must submitted ELECTRONICALLY on or before March 1, 2020. Please submit one copy of the entire application packet, including one set of originals of each letter of reference and transcript to:

info@madsec.org

The Selection Committee will review applications. All applicants will be notified of the Committee's decision by March 29, 2020.
